Windsor, October 29.

THE following Addreſs from the Burgh of Culroſs, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Dupplin, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of the Burgh of Culroſs.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Faithful Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town-Council of Your Burgh of Culroſs, within the County and Shire of Perth, being equally ſenſible of the Bleſſing of Peace, and the ſad Effects of War, cannot (among others) omit to Congratulate Your Majeſty, and to render our moſt humble and moſt hearty Thanks for Your Majeſty's Care, in procuring to Your Nations the Satisfactory View of a Peace; which cannot fail by Your Majeſty's Conduct, to afford Your Subjects all the Advantages propoſed at the Undertaking this War, and to relieve them of the great and expenſive Burdens thereof.

The making of Peace and War is Your Majeſty's undoubted Prerogative; and Your victorious Arms ſhews where the Ballance of Europe lies; ſo that what hath hither been the Motive of War, is now in Your Majeſty's Power: And therefore we hope that Heaven ſhall bleſs Your Majeſty with compleating ſo great a Work, and that we ſhall never be wanting in our thankful Acknowledgments to God for ſo great a Mercy, nor in our dutiful Allegiance to Your Majeſty.

Your Majeſty's univerſal Care for all Your Dominions makes us Confident, that what concerns this remote Part of Your Realm, in the Negotiation of Peace, will not be omitted: And Your pious and conſtant Zeal for the Proteſtant Religion doth convince us, that Your Majeſty will continue to take ſuch Meaſures for ſecuring to us a Proteſtant Succeſſor, that when it ſhall pleaſe God to call Your Majeſty from an Earthly to an Immortal Crown, we may ſtill enjoy the Exerciſe of our Holy Religion, which is and ought to be dearer to us than any other Concern.

That God may grant Succeſs to all Your Majeſty's Undertakings, and a long and happy Reign to Your Majeſty here, and that hereafter Your Memory may ever be Sacred, is and ſhall always be the Prayers of, may it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful, moſt Humble, and moſt Obedient Subjects and Servants.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty receiv'd very graciouſly.

Turin, Octob. 12. N. S. On the tenth Inſtant the Duke, with all the Court, remov'd from hence to the Venerie, where they intend to continue two Months, if the Weather will permit. Yeſterday the Earl of Peterborough went thither to wait on his Royal Highneſs, and return'd in the Evening. The Imperial Generals, who have been here for ſome time, are now gone to their Poſts at Livorno and Trino, at which Places the Troops are to remain till they march into their Winter Quarters.

Madrid, Octob. 13. N. S. On the fifth paſt, a Ceſſation of Arms by Sea and Land, between Great Britain and Spain, was proclaim'd for four Months, to commence from the twenty ſecond of laſt Auguſt. And ſoon after, in purſuance of the Treaty for the Ceſſation, an Order was publiſh'd to admit all Britiſh Ships to a free Trade, during the ſaid Term of four Months, and to take off all Impoſitions laid upon the Goods of that Nation ſince the beginning of this War, which, it is ſaid, amounted upon ſome to Seven, and upon others to Ten per Cent. The Cortes of theſe Kingdoms are to aſſemble here on the ſixteenth, in order to paſs a Law, to prevent this Monarchy from being ever united to that of France, and the Succeſſion is to be ſettled on the Duke of Savoy's Family, as deſcended from the Infanta Donna Catharina, Daughter of King Philip the Second.

St. Auguſtin, (within ſix Leagues of Madrid) Octob. 17. N. S. The Lord Lexington is arrived at this Place, having been met by the Magiſtrates of every Town, through which he paſs'd, and conducted by them through their ſeveral Diſtricts. In all Places, he has been received with the higheſt Marks of Honour and Reſpect.

Hague, Nov. 2. N. S. On the 28th of the laſt Month, Count Sinzendorff and Baron Heems, were in Conference with the Deputies of the States General, in relation to the Affairs of the Spaniſh Netherlands. The States of Holland ſeparated laſt Saturday, and are to meet again on the Ninth, and to receive the Project of the State of the War on the Twelfth. In the laſt Seſſion they diſpos'd of ſeveral Regiments, and other military Employments that were vacant. Prince Eugene arrived here this Day, and went immediately to the Earl of Albemarle's, where he is to lodge two or three Days, till a Houſe he has taken for this Winter, is made fit to receive him.

Utrecht, Nov. 4. N. S. Several Miniſters of the Allies, and thoſe of France, are frequently in Conference with the Lord Privy Seal. Monſieur Marſhal de Bieberſtein, one of the Plenipotentiaries of Pruſſia, returned this Morning from Amſterdam, where he had been for a few Days. The Duke and Ducheſs of St. Pierre, came hither yeſterday in the Evening from Bruſſels.

Windſor, Octob. 26. This Evening Count Fantoni, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Guaſtalla, had his firſt private Audience of Her Majeſty, to which he was introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, and conducted by Sir Clement Cotterell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

In the Chapter which was held on the 26th, for electing Knights of the Garter, Sir William Oldes, Kt. was, by Her Majeſty's Command, Sworn Gentleman-Uſher of the Black Rod.

The Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty having, ſome time ſince, ordered the ſeven diſabled Seamen undermentioned, to be entertained in Her Majeſty's Royal Hoſpital at Greenwich as Penſioners, are pleas'd to give Notice, that if they do not apply themſelves to Sir William Gifford, Kt. Governor of the aforeſaid Hoſpital, within a Fortnight after the date hereof, other diſabled Seamen will be entertained there in their rooms.
